BOLSHEVIKISTS AND POLES IN DEATH STRUGGLE.

PARIS, Aug. 12.—The Bolsheviks are advancing on all fronts. They have captured the town of Ciechanow, cutting the Warsaw-Danzig railway, along which supplies for the Polish army have been sent. The Russians have scored a decisive victory over the forces of General Wrangle on the southern front.

The military decision reached at the Hythe conference between Premiers Lloyd George and Millerand and their advisers were as follows, according to the French foreign office:

First—That it was impracticable to send Allied troops to Poland.

Second—the integrity of Poland's western frontier was guaranteed. (This means that any effort by Germany to use the present crisis in an attempt to regain any of the territory ceded to Poland under the treaty of Versailles would be blocked.)

Third—That blockade measures against Russia would be taken later.

Fourth—That the Allies would continue sending munitions and skilled officers to Poland.

"Warsaw is doomed," is the remark heard everywhere today in official and political circles of Paris.

BRITISH COMMERCIAL FLIERS MAKE FINE RECORD

LONDON, Aug. 12.—With 38,954 flights and a total of 70,000 passengers carried during the first year of civil flying in England there was but one fatal accident. Announcement of this, made at the International Air Show, caused much comment and led Controller General of Civil Aviation Maj. Gen. Sir R. H. Sykes to say:

"We have conquered the air, and our immediate task is to exploit our victory in the interest of commercial development."

The number of miles flown was 734,200 for the first year and goods carried totaled 116,498 pounds. Up to the end of March more than $1,000,000 worth of imports and exports were carried by air between the United Kingdom and the continent.

A total of 114 airdromes were licensed and 519 machines were registered during the first year of civil flying in England.

CINCINNATI WOMAN GAINS 25 POUNDS

Eats Anything She Wants And
Sleeps Like a Child Since Lost
Strength Returned

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-five pounds in weight," was the truly remarkable statement made by Mrs. Bettie Vaughn, 27 Farrels Court, Cincinnati, Ohio, recently.

"When I commenced taking the medicine I only weighed one hundred pounds; now I weigh one hundred and twenty-five pounds and never felt better in my life. I had suffered two attacks of the 'flu,' first in January, 1919, and again in January, 1920, and as a result was in a badly run-down, weakened condition. My nerves were so badly upset I could never get a good night's sleep and I had a severe headache just about all the time. My appetite left me almost entirely, and the little I did manage to eat did not seem to do me any good. I felt tired and worn out all the time, and was so miserable I became almost desperate and had about given up all hope of ever being well again.

"But things are different now, for thanks to Tanlac, all my troubles are completely gone. I have regained my lost strength and my nerves are in such good condition I can sleep and I have a splendid appetite. In fact, Tanlac has simply made me feel like a new woman, and I think it is just the grandest medicine in the whole world."

Tanlac is sold in Paris at the People's Pharmacy. (adv)

MARRIAGE LICENSE

In one corner of the Cave of the Winds in Colorado, which is visited yearly by scores of tourists, lies a large pile of hairpins, combs, barrettes and hair ornaments. This had its origin in the superstition that the unmarried woman who left a hairpin or hair ornament there would be married within a year.

Another superstition is that if a girl tosses a coin to the bottom of a well in Ramona's Wedding Place, in California, it will bring her a husband within a year. The result is that the bottom of the well is covered with coins and already a small fortune has accumulated. (adv)

AMERICAN EXPRESS CO. EM- PLOYES GET RAISE

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—The United States Railway Labor Board has handed down a decision increasing wages of employees of the American Railway Express Company $30,000,000 yearly.

Eighty thousand men, not provided for by the recent $600,000,000 railway wage award, are affected. The award is retroactive to May 1, 1920.

The wage increase, amounting to 16c an hour, will give messengers and other train service employees an increase of $38.40 a month.

All other employees will receive an increase of $32.64.

Train service employees work on a 240-hour month basis, while all other employees work on a 204-hour basis.

The decision adds thirty million dollars to the nation's express bill. Under the terms of the Esch-Cummings transportation act, the express company will be permitted to raise its rates sufficiently to meet the increased labor cost. Arguments in the rate case already have been presented before the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington.

The award does not go into the question of rules and working conditions.

The express decision applies to all express company employees save 2,500 shopmen who were given an increase of 13 cents an hour in the railway award last month. The award to expressmen is slightly better than the average increase to the railway men, the board finding that express employees, as a class, were not so well paid as men in other lines of railway work.

Four unions are affected by the board's decision. They are: The Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees; the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Stablemen and Helpers of America; the Railway Express Drivers, Chauffeurs and Conductors, Local No. 720 of Chicago; the Order of Railway Expressmen.

PARIS EVIDENCE FOR PARIS PEOPLE

The Statements of Paris Residents
Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Paris people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says compels respect.

Such evidence is convincing. That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

Phillip M. Heller, proprietor meat market, 722 Main street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills a few times in the past and have been greatly benefited by them. At times my back was weak and lame and the kidney secretions passed too frequently making me get up often at night. I have used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at those times and they have always rid me of the complaint. I think they are a splendid kidney medicine and gladly recommend them."

"MISS MINERVA'S BABY"

The third story in the delightful "Miss Minerva" series.

Miss Minerva's baby was born in the last chapter of "Billy and The Major."

Billy, who reported that the baby was "as red as a tomato" and smelled "like violets" and who fervently wished it looked as "good as it smelled," gets his wish in the new book. The little fluffy-haired Josephine is a baby with the appearance of an angel and the personality of a mischievous and adorable sprite. From the very beginning, the small heroine is a keen strategist—absolutely irresistible. She manages every one—even her strict and obdurate mother, whom she flippantly calls "Minerva."

Josephine, the irrepressible, takes a happy part in the adventures of her cousin Billy and his friends and enlivens the life of the humanized Miss Minerva with new and disconcerting problems and joys.

Those who have loved Billy Green Hill will love him more for his devotion to little Josephine and will delight with him as she bubbles her whimsically humorous way through the eventful first four years of her life.

This delightful book will be on sale on or about September 1, which is the publication date.

TIME FOR CELERY PLANTING

Late celery should be set in the early part of August. Dig a trench about four inches and put the celery plants in it. Give the plants careful attention and water them when necessary and cover them also when the sun is hot until they become well established in the ground. The Garden Circular, from the College of Agriculture, will tell you how to grow celery.

Tactful Youngster.

Mother bought a box of candy, but it was nearly dinner time so would not give any to Sonny. While waiting for the dinner bell to ring Sonny said: "Mamma, let's play store." Mother was willing, so the child went on with his game of make-believe. Said he: "This room will be the candy store. You be the clerk and I'll be buying, but, oh, mamma, let's have real candy!"
